No. 104

House of Representatives

The House met at 9 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mrs. CAPITO).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
July 12, 2012.

I hereby appoint the Honorable SHELLEY MOORE CAPITO to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

JOHN A. BOEHNER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer: God of the universe, we give You thanks for giving us another day.

As the Members of this people's House deliberate these days, give them the wisdom and magnanimity to lay aside what might divide us as a people to forge a secure future for our country.

We pray for all people who have special needs. May Your presence be known to those who are sick, that they might feel the power of Your healing spirit. Be with those who suffer persecution in so many places in our world, and bless our troops who are engaged in the easing of those sufferings. Give to all who are afraid or anxious or whose minds are clouded by uncertain futures the peace and confidence that come from trust in Your goodness and mercy.

Inspire the men and women who serve in this House to be their best selves, that they may in turn be an inspiration to the Nation and to the world.

May all that is done here this day be for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to five requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

MASSIVE DEFENSE CUTS

(Mr. WITTMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WITTMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express concerns on behalf of my constituents. Paralysis, uncertainty—these are the effects of inaction, inaction on looming, massive defense cuts that will go into effect in January 2013.

In America's First District, many small businesses exist to support our military, to innovate and to build systems and resources—resources for our troops that save lives and help them do their job on the battlefield. But these businesses face an uncertain future as the question of looming defense cuts, or sequestration, remain unresolved. Do they stop production? Do they lay off workers?

This spring, I voted with the majority in this House to avoid these massive defense cuts while putting the Nation's budget on a path to balance. The Senate has failed to act. The President has threatened to veto.

Our military and those who support it—and the national security of this country—demand our attention and respect. Leaving this issue to the last minute is irresponsible. Now is the time for action.

WESTERN NEW YORKERS COMPETING IN THE OLYMPIC GAMES

(Ms. HOCHUL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. HOCHUL. Madam Speaker, 2 weeks from tomorrow Olympic athletes from all over this world will parade into the stadium in London to officially launch the 2012 Olympics.

I am so proud to say that five of them will be western New Yorkers that we represent in upstate New York. These include archer Jake Kaminski from Elma; the current number one ranked women's pole vaulter, Jenn Suhr of Churchville; volleyball player Matt Anderson, born in Buffalo; swimmer Ryan Lochte, born in Rochester; and two time U.S. Soccer Female Athlete of the Year, Abby Wambach of Rochester.

Throughout their lifetimes of training, hard work, and sacrifices, these athletes embody what it means to be an American, and they carry with them to London the pride of western New York and the entire Nation.

As we wish them and the entire team good luck, my wish is that that sense of common purpose that joins all of us
